AeroCat Cycling Team Picks Up a Gold, Silver, and Bronze

ELK GROVE, IL (July 31-August 1, 2010) – AeroCat LLC, an Indiana based high performance bicycle manufacturer, is proud to disclose the recent successes of the AeroCat Cycling Team. The five man squad competed in the Tour of Elk Grove's Category 1/2 races this past weekend.

Andrew Crater won Saturday's United Healthcare Road Race and returned to the podium on Sunday after finishing 2nd in the Safeco Insurance Criterium. Emile Abraham joined Crater on the podium on Sunday with a 3rd place finish.

Abraham also finished 8th in Saturday's road race and both top ten finishes came less than a week after winning the silver medal in the Central American and Caribbean Games road race for Trinidad and Tobago in Mayaguez, Puerto Rico last Wednesday.

Juan Pablo Dotti finished seventeenth and fifteenth respectively in the weekend's events, and team members Diego Garavito and Daniel Asconeguy were involved in several lead-outs throughout the two races.

The team returns to action this coming weekend at the Presbyterian Hospital Invitational Criterium, a USA Cycling National Racing Calendar event in Charlotte, North Carolina.
