

June 21, 2010

FOR RELEASE: Immediately

AeroCat Cycling Team to Visit Portland

THIENSVILLE, WI (June 18, 2010) – AeroCat LLC, an Indiana based high performance bicycle manufacturer, is proud to share the success of the AeroCat Cycling Team at the Tour of America's Dairyland race series and is pleased to announce that the team will make a visit to Portland, Indiana later this week.

The AeroCat Cycling Team is currently competing in various races across eastern Wisconsin as segments of the Tour of America's Dairyland series which began June 17th and will continue through this Sunday. The top finish for the team so far has been Juan Pablo Dotti's victory in the Pro division of Friday's Thiensville Fiddleheads Coffee Criterium. Teammates Andrew Crater and Emile Abraham have each earned a fourth place finish in the Shorewood and the Giro D' Grafton Criteriums respectively.

In lieu of completing the Tour of America's Dairyland races this weekend, the team will be competing in the Ohio Triple Header of Criteriums and will be stopping in Portland for a brief visit Thursday night or Friday morning en route to Madeira, Ohio for Friday evening's race.

Pictured: AeroCat cyclist Juan Pablo Dotti raises his arms in celebration immediately following his victory in the Thiensville Fiddleheads Coffee Criterium on Saturday, June 19th. Teammate Emile Abraham (back left) was the team's second highest finisher, placing sixth.

About AeroCat, LLC:

AeroCat, LLC is headquartered in Portland, Indiana, USA and is a manufacturer of high performance bicycle products. The company is committed to designing and building the finest performing bicycles for riders of all abilities and budgets. For more information visit the company's website at www.aerocatbike.com or contact Dave Poole at 260-703-8001 or email dave.poole@aerocatbike.com.