AeroCat Cycling Team Dominates Aflac Outdoor Games

COLUMBUS, GA (May 22-23, 2010) – AeroCat LLC, an Indiana based high performance bicycle manufacturer, is pleased to share the success of the AeroCat Cycling Team this past weekend at the Aflac Outdoor Games Grand Prix. The team was led by Juan Pablo Dotti, who notched victories in both the Pro/1/2 Criterium and Road Race events. Diego Garavito and Emile Abraham joined Dotti as AeroCat's next top finishers placing fourth in the Pro/1/2 Criterium and fourth in the Pro/1/2 Road Race respectively. Other AeroCat finishers in the criterium race were Abraham (11th), Andrew Crater (19th), and Daniel Asconeguy (23rd) and other finishes in the road race included Asconeguy (14th), Crater (24th), and Garavito (25th).

Combining his dual victories in the Aflac Games with his victories in the Gainesville Criterium and Time Trial held May 15-16, Dotti currently owns a four race win streak in Pro/1/2 events. Abraham also had a strong showing the Gainesville events with a sixth place finish in the road race and a ninth place finish in the time trial.

The AeroCat Cycling Team returns to action Memorial Day weekend to compete in the Quad Cities Road Race and Criteriums in Iowa and Illinois and the St. Francis Tulsa Tough June 4-6.
